

July Strategy Special

The perfect opportunity to get ahead

July is a superb time for an intensive strategy session:

- It's a golden time for strategic thinking: When the school is quiet but everything is still fresh in your mind.
- Smart people do the big thinking when they're relaxed: You can generate new ideas in July, mull them over in August, and be ready to make decisions and implement them in early September.
- Plus, you might be one of the lucky ones and have a bit of budget to use before the end of this academic year!

This July you have the opportunity to work with Juliet Corbett, independent school strategy expert, in a 3-hour session over video call. During our time together we'll:

- Dive into a reflection of how this year went: How far you achieved your strategic goals, the lessons you learnt and the challenges that got in your way.
- Clarify your vision for next year: With super-clear goals for what you want to achieve and why.
- Co-create a strategy to get you there: How you'll use strengths and opportunities to move forward, and how you'll overcome the challenges that might hold you back.
- And we'll finish with clear next steps: So you can take some restorative time off in August and then hit the ground running in September.

July Strategy Special : The perfect opportunity to get ahead

Who the sessions are for

These sessions are designed for school heads and senior leaders and will be adapted to suit your needs. We could focus on a school-wide review of progress, a departmental strategy such as for development or marketing, or a deep-dive into a particular project such as your bursary programme.

Special July offer

July is the only time of year when leaders can work with Juliet in a one-off session - the rest of the year these sessions are only available as part of a series of calls over 6 months.

This July, a 3-hour strategy session over video call will only cost £845 +VAT, 15% lower than the equivalent cost the rest of the year.

Think of it as a special reward for those leaders who are working during July while many people are away!

Book now to secure a slot

There are only a handful of slots available in July 2022, so act fast to book your session:

Client testimonials

"If you need an independent sounding board and consultant to bring a structured and enjoyable approach to refreshing a strategic plan, look no further. Juliet has a great combination of sector knowledge, clarity of thought, skills and experience. She is excellent."

Andrew Gordon-Brown, Head, Kingswood School

"Juliet is excellent at giving us concrete advice on the next steps forward in securing an exciting future for Mount Kelly amid challenging times. She facilitates intellectual reflection and then puts answers in front of us which form a clear and achievable roadmap. Juliet adds real value in her work and I have no hesitation in thoroughly recommending her."

Guy Ayling, Head Master, Mount Kelly

"Juliet guided, sense-checked, questioned, rehearsed and supported our work. I don't believe our outcomes would have been as successful if she had not been in the wings. She enabled me and my team to aim higher and more boldly than I would have felt able to do in the wake of global disruption. I can't thank her enough."

Alexa Broad, Director of Development, Abingdon School
